JULY 2016

SpiritedFAITH – July 6th and July 20th, 6pm

Our first “Spirited Faith” in June was quite enjoyable as we discussed creation. Thanks to everyone who joined us! If you missed out (or just enjoyed it so much, you want more), we will meet twice in July. On July 6th, we’ll meet at BG’s & Billy Hannah’s BBQ (602 Main St., Schertz). On July 20th, we’ll meet at Nicha’s Cocina (7929 Pat Booker Rd.). Watch the bulletin for the topics we will discuss. It is “Spirited” because we can enjoy snacks and beverages (as you wish and at your own expense). It is “Faith” because we have light hearted conversations about God, faith and life. No need to RSVP, just show up and bring a friend! Come join the fun! If you can’t make it at 6, just stop in when you can. EVERYONE is welcome!

PATRIOTIC POTLUCK CELEBRATION ON SUNDAY, JULY 3

Everyone is invited to participate in an old fashioned 4th of July Celebration Picnic. Please join us in the Parish Hall following the late service. You are asked to bring a main dish, side dish, or dessert to share. The Fellowship Committee will be providing iced tea and lemonade. Please let us know what you plan to bring by signing up on the Fellowship board. Let’s celebrate the 4th of July weekend in fellowship with one another. Hope to see all of you there!

The Women of the ELCA will be selling Cards and Crafts!!!

Come out and join in the food and fellowship and shop while you’re there!

CHRISTMAS IN JULY

OK, it’s early to be thinking about Christmas presents, but . . . The Women of the ELCA will be selling U. S. state pillows for Christmas gifts by special order only. Each pillow will feature one of the 50 states. At the July 3rd potluck we will have samples for Texas and Wisconsin, and a picture of the design for the other states. We will be taking orders for delivery in November. If you have enjoyed the dish towels that Dinah Ryson made on her embroidery machine, we think you will like her work on these pillows as well.

“Hi! How are you doing?” “I’m good, just busy.” This greeting and exchange is well known to many of us. We hear it said often and even say it ourselves. I know I’m guilty. A classmate of mine recently wrote on his blog, “Carl Jung once said, ‘Busyness is not just FROM the devil, it IS the devil.’ When I look at the pace at which we live these days, I cannot help but conclude he was right. The evil one has taken the Transitive Property of Equality (if  $A = B$ , and  $B = C$ , then  $A = C$ ) and twisted it into the Transitive Property of Busyness. If busyness equals productivity, and productivity is good, then busyness is good. And we believe the lie.”

There are all sorts of articles online that you can read and some are even popping up on my friends’ Facebook feeds. Two of which are at <http://www.onbeing.org/blog/the-disease-of-being-busy/7023#.V1QI7Of7-z0.facebook> and <https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/inspired-life/wp/2015/03/17/six-reasons-why-you-shouldnt-use-the-b-word-so-much/> in case you’re interested in reading them. Some of these articles discuss how busyness is terrible for our spirituality. In light of all this, I have an insightful quote and a provocative idea that are helpful in our busyness.

“In Oriental philosophy, emptiness is understood not only in terms of humility, but also in terms of great usefulness. It is the empty vessel that can carry the needed load. It is the empty cup that can be filled with a nourishing drink. It is the empty streambed that can carry the run-off from the spring rains. (And boy have we had plenty of that this year!) It is the empty lake that can receive the rushing melt of the mountain snows (or flood waters – just think about Medina Lake and Canyon Lake both being restored to 100% capacity). In emptiness, one can become more than previously possible, because there is the capacity in emptiness to be filled.”

So how much “empty” is in your life on a regular basis? Do you have many empty hours? Or are they all filled with activity and doing and running and going? Do you allow times of emptiness in your life so that you can be MORE useful in your times of work or study?

“God is like water for fish. Fish are made up of water; water is a part of their bodies. Likewise, God is a part of who we are. Fish constantly swim through water and take it in. It passes through them; in their mouths and out their gills. So God is constantly passing through us. Fish swim in water and water supports them and surrounds them at all times.”

Do you see God in your life in this way – as being part of who you are, constantly passing through every part of your being, supporting you and surrounding you in all that you do? It strikes me funny that both of these ideas have mentioned water (at least in some way). Water is a necessity in our lives, but it is also a great gift. It is water that was used to claim us as God’s own children through baptism. As we were baptized into Christ, we received the gift of eternal life – which is a life NOT filled with busyness, but one filled with peace.

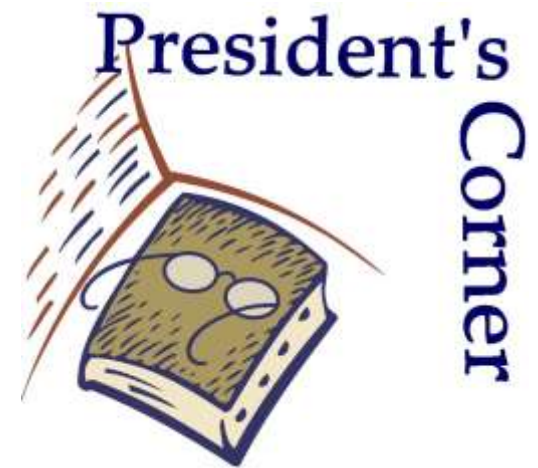

Both of these point us to open our eyes to make room in our lives for the peace of God that comes to us through Christ. So as we continue through summer, PLEASE remember to make room for EMPTINESS in your lives so that you can fully IMMERSE yourself in the presence of God and the peace that is only found in Christ.

Shalom y’all!

Pastor Mike

P.S. – The fish illustration came from a video made by ELCA Portico Benefit Services. If you would like to see the whole thing, go to <http://vimeo.com/34101351>.

President's Corner

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Ten minutes... ten minutes before... ten minutes after....
What can happen in just ten minutes?

Ten minutes before our church service you can greet visitors and make them feel welcomed. Introduce yourself. Answer a question. Invite them to sit with you.

Ten minutes after our church service you can greet them again. Invite them to join you for coffee in the parish hall. Invite them to Soulful conversations or Sunday School. Make sure they know where the Sunday School classes are for the children.

Next week, greet them again. Get to know a little more about them. Tell them a little more about you. Invite them to lunch. Invite them to an event at CTK. Make them feel welcomed.

The following week, do it all over again. Introduce them to other members they may not have met yet. Invite them to become part of our congregation.

The ten minutes before and after each service are significant times for our guests. Friendliness must be constantly practiced. Each week, several people visit our congregation for the first time. Extend your hand. Put on a smile. Let's be friendly. The assigned greeters are not the only people that should be greeting our visitors. If only one or two people interact with our visitors, how likely is it that they will want to return?

Ten minutes... ten minutes before... ten minutes after.... What can happen in just ten minutes?

Those ten minutes don't have to be at church. Use those ten minutes whenever and wherever you find them to share with those around you. Can you help them in some way? Share a laugh and make their day. Share the good news of Christ. Invite them to our church.

Ten minutes... ten minutes before... ten minutes after.... What can happen in just ten minutes?

Miracles can happen. God can answer prayers. Prayers for each other. Prayers for our congregation. Prayers for the sick and those in need. Prayers for our country.

Blessings,

Susan

Prime Time Lutherans

☀ Living the sunset years with a sunrise attitude ☀

PTL – The PTL event for July will be a tour of the Toyota Plant on Thursday, July 14, at 1:30 p.m. We will carpool from CTK at 10:45 a.m. and will have lunch at a restaurant (to be determined) prior to the tour. We are allotted 20 slots . . . So first come, first served. A sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: As of January 1, 2017, Alma and Leonard Geyer and Joyce and Don Nellermoe are retiring from chairing Prime Time Lutherans. We feel we are unable to continue as chairpersons, and would welcome a younger person or persons to continue this worthwhile social organization of CTK. We are thankful for being able to provide opportunities for all those who like what we offer. This has been a fun job, and we will certainly assist anyone with information, planning and places to visit. Please don't let this organization be discontinued.

Alma & Leonard Geyer, Joyce & Don Nellermoe, Co-Chairpersons

ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

As adults, we continue to learn throughout our lives and so our faith formation is still just as important as when we were children. We have a number of opportunities here at Christ the King for you to get involved. These are open to everyone. So come join the discussion and bring a friend!

ADULT BIBLE STUDY (meets in the Choir Room)

Join us in the choir room as we discuss the topics below.

Sunday at 9:15am – We will continue meeting through the summer (when Pastor Mike is here). We are discussing the book of Galatians. Galatians was one of Martin Luther’s favorite books. Everyone is welcome to join us and find out what this letter from Paul has to say for our lives today.

Wednesday at 10:30am – We will NOT have the Wednesday morning Bible study from June through August. Watch for details about resuming in September.

SALT – Spirited Adults Learning Together Dip into the Word of God for spice in your spiritual life. Join us Wednesday evenings at 6 pm in the Choir Room. Because of Spirited Faith and camp, SALT will only meet on July 27th. We are in the early stages of discussing Galatians. So, bring your Bible and a friend to see how it impacts our lives. This is an opportunity for adult conversation and study; to be “salty” Christians in our life and in our world. No need to RSVP, just show up—but bring your bible. EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Soulful Conversations - Library every Sunday at 9:15am.

It is amazing how many “rabbit holes” our conversations lead us down . . . All beneficial. We continue to review the 10 signs/fruits of authentic spiritual growth from the book Soul-Centered Spirituality for People on the Go by Jim Clarke.

Art Camp 1 was a huge success. We had 38 kids, 20 helpers including 11 youth helpers. We learned about some artists, painted and even threw eggs filled with paint at canvas to create a painting. It was so much fun. They all can't wait to come back again.

If you would like to be on the Summer Ministry Dream Team to begin to plan Summer Ministry activities for 2017, please talk to Mariesa. We are looking at Art Camps, the continuing and transforming of VBS and also what camps we want to go to next summer.

Stewardship and Finance Committee Report—July, 2016

*“Serving Neighbors Near and Far,
And in all we do, growing disciples for Christ”*

We are committed to continuously serve our neighbors near and far, and during the past year the stewardship committee has focused on our “ministry beyond the parking lot”. As the body of Christ in this place, we continue to serve others in our community, state, country, and around the world. In so doing we reach out and touch the lives of millions.

Just Look What Has Been Done. The ELCA is now in its second year of its first-ever comprehensive campaign, Always Being Made New, and has brought exciting growth. In 2015, support from individuals, congregations, and others provided financial support for “neighbors near and far.” Shown below is a summary of activities supported in the 2015 campaign and the results of generous donors.

- 62 new-start ministries in the ELCA
- 235 seminary students received an ELCA Fund for Leaders Scholarship during the academic year
- 73 young adults in Global Missions were sent into a year of service
- 6 international women received a full-tuition scholarship in the 2015-2016 academic year
- 34 international women participated in an International Women Leaders seminar in Wittenberg, Germany
- 224 missionaries were supported
- 14 malaria programs in Africa received support from the ELCA Malaria Campaign
- 60 countries around the world received ELCA World Hunger-supported programs
- 17 “renewing” congregations received grants in the 2015 campaign
- 21 new or enhanced youth and young adult ministries received grants during the year

As the Rev. Elizabeth A. Eaton, presiding bishop of the ELCA has stated, “This is exciting news about the campaign. At a time when people are concerned about contracting resources, we see the generosity of our members expanding. At a time when some wonder if the church has the capacity to be engaged in the world, we are actually extending our work. Truly, together we can do more”.

At CTK we are committed to serve neighbors near and far, and we are blessed to have the opportunity. By continuing to work together, we can accomplish great things in “growing disciples for Christ”.

On behalf of the Stewardship Committee,
Bill Maddox, Chairperson

GREAT JOB! WAY TO GO!

You may recall that our Lenten offering was designated to go toward the ELCA Good Gifts: Stocking a Health Clinic. Our congregational goal (as determined by the council) was to raise $3,000, and we ended up raising $4,176.00. Our conference (Cibolo Creek) set a combined goal for all the churches within our Conference to raise $20,000 for the health clinics. At Synod Assembly, our combined conference offering totaled $21,658.88!! Thank you so much for your generosity!
