AUGUST 2016

In all we do...
growing disciples for Christ

BLESSING OF BACKPACKS, TEACHERS & STUDENTS

On August 21st at both worship services, we will offer a blessing for all students, teachers and faculty as they return to school. As part of this, we will also have a blessing of the backpacks, tote bags, briefcases, lunch boxes, or whatever you'd like to bring for a blessing of your school or work.

This is not just for those going to school! Everyone can bring an item that represents their work for the blessing.

ALL CHURCH RALLY DAY

When everyone thinks of Rally Day, immediately we think of Sunday School registrations, games for kids and other fun. Have you ever wondered what went on in all of the ministries at Christ the King? Sunday, August 28, at 9:00 a.m. in the Parish Hall, all the ministries of Christ the King are invited to set up display tables, hand out calendars and advertise what their AWESOME ministries are all about! For more information, please call the church office.

Spirited FAITH - Aug 10th and Aug 24th, 6:30pm

Please note the time change!!

6:30, just stop in when you can. EVERYONE is welcome!

Our "Spirited Faith" discussions have continued to be interesting. Thanks to everyone who has joined us! If you missed out (or just enjoyed it so much, you want more), we will meet twice in August. On August 10th, we'll meet at Fox's Pizza & Tap Room (3900 FM 3009, Schertz). On August 24th, we'll meet at Biff Buzby's Burgers (12702 Toepperwein). Watch the bulletin and/or the church Facebook page for the topics we will discuss. It is "Spirited" because we can enjoy snacks and beverages (as you wish and at your own expense). It is "Faith" because we have light hearted conversations about God, faith and life. No need to RSVP, just show up and bring a friend! Come join the fun! If you can't make it at

29th ANNUAL SWTS WOMEN OF THE ELCA CONVENTION

Hilton Garden Inn, Pat Booker Road, Live Oak, Texas
Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, October 7, 8, and 9, 2016

"You send forth your spirit and they are created; and so you renew the face of the earth." Psalm 104:30

Come join the Women of the ELCA at the 29th Annual Convention as we celebrate the theme "Reform! Renew! Rejoice!" Registration fee is $130 through August 9 and includes our guest speaker, Bible study, materials, the Mixer on Friday evening, lunch on Saturday, and the banquet "Viva! Fiesta!" on Saturday evening with entertainment by Teatro De Artes Mariachis and Ballet Folklorico Dancers.

A few weeks ago, my daughter, Violet, and my mom were having a conversation (as I was later told). My mom was explaining to Violet the phrase “No offense, but”. I don’t know what all was said in the conversation, but Violet came away thinking that she could say that phrase and then not have to worry about hurting someone’s feelings with whatever other words she said following it. So I tried to correct that misconception. Granted, we do often say “Bless your heart” or “No offense, but ...” in an effort to ease whatever opinion we may want to express.

Even so, they don’t give us the right to just say what we want without any consideration of the recipient’s feelings.

It makes me think of the old saying “If you can’t say something nice, don’t say anything at all.” Of course, this has also brought about any number of funny and humorous variations, but nonetheless, the original phrase is getting at us only speaking positively about others or we don’t need to speak.

In his explanation of the Eighth Commandment (You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.), Martin Luther tells us “We are to fear and love God, so that we do not tell lies about our neighbors, betray or slander them, or destroy their reputations. Instead we are to come to their defense, speak well of them, and interpret everything they do in the best possible light.” There’s a lot in there, but I want to lift up the last phrase - we are to interpret everything they do in the best possible light. I know this isn’t always easy to do, but that doesn’t mean we can get away with not having to do it. We are called to interpret everything that our neighbors do in the best light.

This means not being so critical of others – here at church or anywhere really (unless they work for you and it’s your job to supervise them). Most everything here at church is done by volunteers. Please have understanding and extend grace when you see something that hasn’t been done, or an item out of place or some change for which you don’t know the reason. Instead of badmouthing the person who should have done it, step up to help out. Offer assistance instead of criticism. Lend a helping hand and a listening ear instead of attacking someone. Remember, you never know what people have going on in their lives on a daily basis and your offer to help or even your smile could make their day.

Obviously, there are times when we need to speak up about deeds left undone and injustices we see happening or even when we have questions about something. In these times, I encourage everyone to remember the Matthew 18 guidelines for addressing it.

“If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax-collector.” (Verses 15-17)

Go directly to the person for who you have a question or a comment (and this especially applies to me – please come to me with your questions or comments). Speaking through others only offers opportunities for misunderstanding. Remember to speak and act in love and as the prayer from St. Francis reminds us, “grant that I may not so much seek, to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.”

Shalom y’all!

Pastor Mike

Dear Friends in Christ,

The following article appeared in my Facebook feed and I feel it is worthy of repeating and pondering. Blessings, Susan

FIVE THINGS I PRAY I WILL NOT DO AS A SENIOR ADULT IN THE CHURCH by Thom S. Rainer

I received my first AARP material in the mail six years ago. I turned 61 years old two days ago. One of my sons says I am fossilized. I am a senior adult. Have I noticed any differences in my life at this age? Certainly. I move more slowly. My idea of a mini-marathon is running to the kitchen from the family room. I see things differently. I don't know if I am wiser, but I certainly have different perspectives. And I have to admit I view church life differently. In fact, I sometimes scare myself with my rigid attitude. I need to write these words quickly lest I become too comfortable or too complacent.

I have five specific prayers. They are for me. They are for my attitude about my church. They are reminders I will need to review constantly.

1. I pray I will not feel entitled because I am a key financial supporter in the church. This attitude means I consider the money my money rather than God's money. That means I am giving with a begrudging heart.
2. I pray I will not say "I've done my time" in the church. Ministry through the local church is not doing your time, like serving a prison sentence. It is an outpouring of joy and thanksgiving to God. I love those churches where senior adults are the most represented among the nursery workers. I need to be among them.
3. I pray I will not be more enthused about recreational trips than ministry and service. There is nothing wrong about me getting on a bus and going to Branson, Missouri, or Gatlinburg, Tennessee. But there is something wrong when that is my dominant involvement in ministry in the church.
4. I pray I will not be more concerned about my preferences than serving others. I've already blown it on this one. I did not like the volume of the music in the service at my church a few weeks ago. I complained about it to my wife. And then I was reminded of all the young people in the church that Sunday worshipping and praising God during the music. I was more concerned about my preference than seeing others worship God.
5. I pray I will not have a critical spirit. I attended a business meeting of a large church some time ago. The total attendance at the meeting represented fewer than five percent of the worship attendance. One of the men who recognized me approached me before the meeting, "We come together at these business meetings to keep the pastor straight," he told me. In reality, they came together to criticize the pastor and staff. I pray I will not become a perpetual critic. I don't want to grow old and cranky; I want to grow old and more sanctified.

Now that I am a senior adult in my own right, I need to make certain I am not a stumbling block or a hindrance to health and growth in my church. I pray my attitude will be like that of Caleb: "Here I am today, 85 years old . . . Now give me the hill country the Lord promised me on that day . . . Perhaps the Lord will be with me and I will drive them out as the Lord promised" (Joshua 14:10-12, HCSB).

May the Lord grant me wisdom and service all the days of my life, including my senior years.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

As adults, we continue to learn throughout our lives and so our faith formation is still just as important as when we were children. We have a number of opportunities here at Christ the King for you to get involved. These are open to everyone. So come join the discussions and bring a friend!

ADULT BIBLE STUDY – meets in the Choir Room

Sunday at 9:15am – We will continue meeting through the summer. We are discussing the book of Galatians. Galatians was one of Martin Luther’s favorite books. Everyone is welcome to join us and find out what this letter from Paul has to say for our lives today.

Wednesday at 10:30am – We will NOT have the Wednesday morning Bible study from June through August. Watch for resuming details in September.

SALT – Spirited Adults Learning Together

Dip into the Word of God for spice in your spiritual life. Join us Wednesday evenings at 6pm in the Choir Room. Because of Spirited Faith, SALT will only meet on August 17 & 31. We are in the early stages of discussing Galatians. So, bring your Bible and a friend to see how it impacts our lives. This is an opportunity for adult conversation and study; to be “salty” Christians in our life and in our world. No need to RSVP, just show up - but bring your bible. EVERYONE is WELCOME!

Soulful Conversations - Library every Sunday at 9:15 am with Joyce Lucas.

Last month we heard, read, and saw many pictures of more violence that has become more prevalent in our world today. It seems that violence and revenge has become such a part of our identity and culture that it is hard to give up. Ironically we just completed the fifth sign of the 10 signs/fruits of authentic spiritual growth — peaceful response to violence or oppression. This month will continue with #6 active response to injustice, #7 relationships that are holistic and respectful, and #8 transparency.

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

The next Quarterly Meeting of the Women of the ELCA will be Monday, August 15, at 6:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Please bring a salad to share.

If you missed the opportunity to order a state pillow at the last sale, we will have a couple of examples on display at the meeting. All 50 states are available and would make a great Christmas gift. A $20 down payment is needed when you order. The pillows will be delivered in November and the final payment of $20 is needed at that time.

This will be our last meeting before the October Convention. I look forward to seeing you on August 15th!

Carol Bearce, President

Stewardship and Finance Committee Report—August, 2016

*“The world asks, ‘What does a man own?’
Christ asks, ‘How does he use it?’”*

We have now completed 6 months of our year, and shown below is a summary of results for the 6 months ended June 30, 2016, and a comparison to budget and last year.

	Actual to date June 30, 2016 (This Year)	Budget to date June 30, 2016 (This Year)	Actual to date June 30, 2015 (Last Year)
Income:
Current	$ 143,763	$ 131,099	$ 127,008
All Other	$ 16,434	$ 13,922	$ 12,371
Total Income	$ 160,197	$ 145,021	$ 139,379
Expenses	$ 145,295	$ 145,004	$133,290
Inc. Less Exp.	$ 14,902	$ 17	$ 6,089

Here is where we stand in other key areas:

	June 30, 2016 (This Year)	June 30, 2015 (Last Year)
• Unrestricted and available cash, meaning total cash less dedicated funds	$ 86,400	$ 70,024
• Special Projects Fund	$ 46,929	$ 43,041

Income—You will note that total income is approximately $21,000 over the same period last year, and approximately $15,000 over budget. Just look at what you have done!!

Expenses—Total expenses are $12,000 over the same period last year, and are primarily accounted for by the difference in the compensation of a full time pastor and that of the interims. Also note that expenses this year are spot on budget. The council has done a great job in managing our operating expenses, and we thank them for their work.

Income Less Expenses—As of June 30 this year, our income is almost $15,000 over expenses, and which is almost $9,000 greater than the same period last year.

Summary—Thanks to your continued and faithful financial stewardship our congregation is blessed and is able to fund the ministries to which we are committed. In addition to the favorable results shown above, let us also remember and shout that We Are Debt Free!

On behalf of your stewardship committee, our hope and prayer is that we continue the work before us, and dream together, plan together, and work together. By so doing we will continue to serve our neighbors near and far, so that in all we do—grow disciples for Christ.

On behalf of the stewardship committee,
Bill Maddox
