ALL SAINTS DAY

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

On November 4th, we will celebrate All Saints Sunday with a display of candles in remembrance of those who have died in the last year. If you would like a candle added for someone who was NOT a member of Christ the King, but died in the past year, please call the church office before November 1st. We will also have votive candles available during the service for everyone to light remembering anyone who died. Also, on All Saints' Sunday, we are celebrating our loved ones through pictures. Please feel free to bring unframed pictures (or a color copy) by November 3 to be included in a memorial display. Please be sure to include information on the back of the picture about whom the picture needs to be returned to.

HARVEST SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4

On Sunday, November 4, we will be gathering to thank God for the bounty he has bestowed upon us with a Harvest Potluck following the 10:30 Worship Service in the Parish Hall. Turkey, gravy, iced tea, coffee, and lemonade will be provided. We ask you to sign up on the Fellowship Bulletin Board to bring a salad, vegetable, dressing, potatoes, or dessert.

The Women of the ELCA will sell cards and crafts at the Harvest Potluck so it is a great time to buy your items for Christmas presents.

CHRISTMAS AT THE ARC - FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14TH

Come join us for the EVENT of the year!! Once again we will celebrate the Holiday Season with a wonderful dinner and fellowship. The party will be held in the Skyline Lounge on the 14th floor of the Army Residence Community. We begin with some Christmas Cheer, spiked and plain eggnog, and a chance to visit with each other from 6:00 to 6:30 p.m. A cash bar for beer and wine will be available. At 6:30 p.m. a sumptuous dinner is planned that will include shrimp cocktail, salad, petit tenderloin, twice baked potato, baby peas, rolls, and a wonderful dessert for $33.00 per person! After the meal, we will sing carols, and enjoy the beautiful rooftop view. Please sign up on the bulletin board and pay when you sign up as your check is your reservation. Space is limited to 60 participants. Be certain to mark your check, in the memo section, for ARC Christmas Party and give it to Margaret in the church office. We are asked to carpool to conserve visitor parking space. NOTE THE CHANGE IN DATE!! For information contact Lisa Lopez at 210-663-9689.

We decided to not have a formal theme this year like we have in the past, but we are focusing on spiritual practices. Last month, I shared about prayer and this month I want to lift up worship. Before we get into that, here is some general information about spiritual practices. “A spiritual practice is the regular performance of actions and activities undertaken for the purpose of cultivating spiritual development. A common metaphor used in the spiritual traditions of the world’s great religions is that of walking a path. Therefore, a spiritual practice moves a person along a path towards a goal.” Obviously, for us as Christians, the goal is to become closer with God. One of the best ways to do that is in worship. Instead of me saying something about it, I found an article by Trudy Smith entitled “Why I Go to Church Even When I Don’t Feel Like it”. She starts the article telling how she was raised going to church and she continued through college, then she experienced something different.

“Over the next few years, something strange happened. I followed Jesus right out of church and into the streets, communing with homeless people over slices of pizza and hearing sermons in the words of the people who lived in the shelter on skid row where I served breakfast on Sunday mornings. Jesus showed up in all sorts of unlikely, unofficial places.

I continued to journey alongside other Christians, but I no longer understood the importance of attending church. It occurred to me that perhaps what was more important than how often I showed up for a Sunday service was how often I showed up for people who were in need: quietly listening, crying with them, sharing my food and time and space and joining my voice with theirs to demand justice.

The more I learned about poverty and systemic injustice, the more frustrated I became with churches whose weekly programming is disconnected from the world beyond their sanctuaries. I was tired of prayer without action; simplistic spiritual formulas without any mention of the Gospel Jesus preached: good news for the poor, freedom for the captives, sight for the blind. I lost hope that most of the Church would ever get its act together enough to closely resemble Jesus.

But then another strange thing happened. I kept following Jesus, and eventually, He led me right back into church. I was surprised. There were plenty of people there working toward justice, but I realized that church was not a place to go because everyone had their act together and was doing things right.

It was more like a refuge where all sorts of people could gather to remind each other of the story we were all in—the one about how God loves us, and is renewing our world and our souls in spite of all the damage that’s been done. It was more like a school for conversion where we were all stumbling through basic lessons on how to love.

It wasn’t perfect—sometimes I felt frustrated, bored or hurt—but it was good, and God was in it. Yes, church people could be apathetic, judgmental and selfish, but so could I. And just like everyone else, I needed to be welcomed and loved anyway.

I’ve slowly learned that going to church can be about something other than moral requirement, fear of punishment, social connection, getting spiritually fed, or even looking for likeminded people with whom to pursue justice in the world. Going to church can be about holding this space in which to experience the grace of God together, learn together, fail and forgive and stumble forward together.

I’ve benefitted from the sacrificial commitment and consistency of countless people who have welcomed me into community over the years, and now I recognize the invitation for me to do the same thing for others: to hold that space even on days when I don’t seem to personally benefit from it. When the songs don’t do anything for me, when I don’t want to talk with people about the difficult week I’ve had, or when I’d rather sleep in instead—it is then that I am invited to go to church anyway.

Not because God or anyone else is judging me by my attendance, but because it is a chance for me to be church to the people who are sharing this journey with me. It is an opportunity to hold space for others to encounter God, and to open space in myself to encounter, even when I least expect it, God in the midst of the people who are my church.”¹

Coming to worship helps to re-center us amidst the chaos of our lives. Like for Trudy, sometimes worship is meaningful and speaks to us and at other times, it doesn’t. Even so, it is of great importance because it is where we are able to be a part of something that is greater than ourselves. We give to others with our presence and we are fed by them as well. Just remember whether you come to worship or not, God loves you!

Shalom y’all!
Pastor Mike

STEWARDSHIP OF SELF: GENEROSITY

James 1: 17 Every generous act of giving

The title of this piece almost scares me! Generosity implies many things but the first thing that comes to mind is MONEY. Haven't I given enough? Are they going to ask for more than I can afford? Certainly not. Generosity has many directions and phases which we can relate to and we need not be frightened by the word. But, let us ask the question of how generous have I been with my time, energy, and talents in doing something for others. Example, in recent history my wife and I were driving home from our May vacation with family in Minnesota when we decided to stop mid-afternoon in a town in northern Texas, well within a day's drive home. We gassed the car and then placed a quick order at a DQ. When I handed my credit card to the cashier, a person standing to the side handed his card to the cashier. Bewildered, I looked at the cashier who stated that he wants to pay for my meals. And with that she swiped his card and our meals were paid. I thanked him; he didn't stop to talk but turned away and left. How generous of this person to pay for a meal for another person, a total stranger. Perhaps he had done this to others.

Another time after I had finished my cancer treatment and finally felt well enough to have a noon meal at a restaurant we had frequented on a regular basis. The waitress asked where we had been and I proceeded to inform her of the situation. The meal came, we ate, and were ready to leave when I asked for the check which didn't appear automatically. The waitress explained that a couple in the next booth overheard our conversation and decided to pay for our meal. We never knew who the couple was. In both situations, God certainly was present in the hearts of both examples. The generosity in these two examples came on the spur of the moment. Isn't it wonderful that people will open their hearts to help others? My wife and I certainly have been blessed by the kindness of people unknown to us. I have also paid forward, as they say, to others. The feeling is wonderful.

One last example of generosity was related to me by a northern friend who with his wife wintered in the Texas Rio Grande Valley. One year they volunteered to help with a reading program for elementary children and found the experience so rewarding they continued to return to that same school for several more years. They were filled with joy at the reception they received each time they returned to the school from the children they worked with. A rich and rewarding experience was their bonus for wintering in the Valley while taking a respite from the northern cold and their farming. Again, I believe God had touched their hearts to engage in a program far from their expertise and training. All of us can do something similar to help others. No monies were involved and these folks were richly rewarded for their efforts.

Helping others willingly and without compensation is the true meaning of Generosity. When we offer to help, God is leading us and gives us his blessing. Perhaps you have been generous in many ways to other folks. Isn't it a great feeling when you have done something so simple as giving to others? I think it is. When you do these simple generous acts, God loves you and has blessed you. The book of James 1:17 explains fully the act of generosity. "Every generous act of giving, with every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change."

RACAP THANKSGIVING SERVICE

You are invited to an Ecumenical Thanksgiving Service, a Celebration of the Randolph Area Christian Assistance Program (RACAP) on Thursday, November 15, at 7:00 p.m. at St. Paul Church on Main Street in Cibolo, Texas. Refreshments will be served following the worship service.

POP TOPS CONTINUE

Thank you to everyone who brought pop tops! We took them to the Women of the ELCA Convention where they joined thousands of other pop tops headed to Mexico to be turned into craft projects. The women from St. John in San Juan had a display and sale of the products. We were really impressed with the creativity of the women making the products. We'd like to continue collecting pop tops for them and for a few crafts of our own which they taught us. So, please, stay thirsty, my friends!

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE FOLLOWING:

Thank you to the Missional River Team, the Outreach Committee, and the members of the congregation who donated ice cream, bottled water, books, and cash for National Night Out. The children of the neighborhood enjoyed the bounce house, ice cream, and the books, and a great time was had by all!

Thank you to all those who helped set up for the Polka Service and clean up afterward: SHINE teens, Kathy Staley, Barbara Kovacich, Glen Anderson, Larry and Marsha Zunker, Don and Margaret Vogt, Joycelyn Simas, Cindy Bonaccorsi, Alfrieda Anderson, and Ray Lopez. A special thank you also to Pete and Dinah Ryson and Kathy Hanley who delivered plates to go.

Thank you to Lisa Lopez for teaching us sign language for the Lord's Prayer and leading us in it throughout the summer (often at both worship services).

Thank you to Cindy Patterson for organizing the books in the library and getting it all set up, and thank you to Rich Patterson for assembling the book cases in the library.

Thank you to Al Boos III for his presence during the sanctuary lighting work done by an outside company and for all the many other ways he helps out around CTK.

PAJAMAS FOR NEW LIFE

New Life Center provides help, healing and hope to emotionally disturbed girls, ages 11 to 17. It was founded in 1993 and is run by Upbring. CTK Women of the ELCA have for years coordinated buying a Christmas gift for each girl, and in 2009 settled on pajamas and slippers. In 2012, we also added a journal. While we have a small dedicated group of women who shop for bargains all year long, we still need your support because New Life has a capacity of 80 girls.

We will receive name, age, sizes, and color preferences for each girl. If you would be willing to shop, please decide how many girls you will buy for, and tell Erika Robeson at the 8:00 a.m. worship service or Carol Bearce at the 10:30 a.m. worship service, or leave a note in our mailboxes. We expect to receive info in late November, and will then pass each girl's data along to you. We need to have the pajamas in hand by December 16 to allow time for wrapping and organizing by cottage.

You may also just buy pajamas as you see a bargain, and we'll match them up with requests and preferences. Guidelines for pajamas: Pants may be long or capri, but no shorts. Tops may be long or short sleeve; but no sleeveless, no tank tops, no spaghetti straps. Also no metal such as zippers or grommets. As for decoration, no inappropriate sayings, no skull and crossbones, no hearts.

Adult Faith Formation Opportunities

Adult faith formation is just as important as when we were children. Therefore, we have a number of opportunities here at Christ the King for you to get involved. These are open to everyone. So come join the discussion and bring a friend!

ADULT BIBLE STUDY – meets in the Choir Room

Sunday at 9:15am – We are studying a book entitled “Faith Under Fire: Exploring Christianity’s Ten Toughest Questions”. Join us as we seek to learn from our discussion of these questions. You can join anytime or pop in and out from week to week.

Wednesday at 10:30am - After we finish the book of Romans, we will begin a study entitled “The Ridiculous Journey: Following a Nobody from Nowhere.” This helps us discover a search for purpose and meaning in the events and choices of our lives and shares about a Middle Eastern homeless man from twenty centuries ago and why he still stirs the souls and imagination of so many. Everyone is welcome to join us and enjoy our interesting discussions. Following the Bible study, all are welcome to join us for lunch (Dutch treat) at La Fiesta Patio Mexican Café on Pat Booker.

Wednesday Night at 6:00 pm - We are finishing our exploration of the Enneagram using a book by Ian Cron and Suzanne Stabile entitled “The Road Back to You: An Enneagram Journey to Self-Discovery”. Even if you missed the first few sessions, you can still join us and learn more about yourself.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

Soulful Conversations

Although the plan was to finish the parable of The Unjust Manager in September, we didn’t. That’s just the way our conversations go sometimes. So if we finish the conversation in October, we will begin a conversation about the parable of The Judge and the Widow. Ordinarily women in the Middle East and certainly Jewish women in Jesus’ time do not go to court. The widow has no men to speak for her nor does she have money or powerful friends. She’s a lone widow in a man’s world. Join our conversation to learn how she finally gets a hearing before the hard-hearted judge. Just pop in – anytime! We gather in the Library (Note: We keep the door closed during our conversations to better hear one another.) All are welcome!

Where Mom’s Connect

Are you a MOM? Please join us on Sunday mornings at 9:15 am for an hour of discussion about topics that are relevant to those of us raising children or who have raised children - is there really ever an end? This year’s theme ... A Year of Adventure. Topics will include: guilt free time, self-worth, autism, spiritual growth, the art of listening, and teen adventures. The coffee is hot and the friendships are warm. See you at 9:15 am every Sunday. MOMS meet in the Learning Building.

UPDATED CHURCH DIRECTORY

The Church Council at its September Meeting voted to include email addresses in the next Church Directory. In order to do so, we have to have permission from the member to include their email address. During the Sundays in November we will have a directory at a table in the narthex on Sunday mornings with someone to assist you in signing up to have your address included. Or, you may call the church office during regular office hours of 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday and we will be happy to help you! For more Information, just call the church office at 210-658-2254.

Each gift can be given in honor of a friend or loved one, and you can send or download a personalized card to let them know about it. Shop now: ELCA.org/goodgifts or you can take an ornament off of the ELCA Good Gifts tree in the narthex. Check it out!

DID YOU KNOW?

Every month, the congregation council prays for church members. We are working our way through the directory praying for every member of the congregation by name.

Have You Seen the Light?! Have You Seen the Cross?!

As part of the new lighting in the sanctuary, we also installed lights that point at our outdoor cement cross on Pat Booker Road. If you're driving by the church at night, take a look and see what you think.

We remember in prayer:
