I know this may be shocking to some of y'all, but when I was in high school, I was a bit of a talker. One time, I was so particularly chatty that the manager (at the fast food chain where I worked) bet me that I couldn't go the rest of the night without talking (except to customers or about work), which would be about two hours. Of course, with that motivation, I was more than able to zip my lip. This silly bet aside, how often are you intentionally silent?

How often do you intentionally sit in silence and spend that time with God? I mean sheer silence – no radio or music playing, no television in the background, still wide awake – just sitting and listening for God. Believe it or not, silence is a spiritual practice. Remember, Elijah in 1 Kings 19 experienced God in the sound of sheer silence. I think I've mentioned in a sermon before that while I was in seminary, one of my professors gave us an assignment to sit for a minimum of four hours in silence (and it had to be in one block of time – not broken up into little mini sessions). We were not allowed to have any music playing and no tv or movies on. We could NOT sleep or exercise or do anything other than sit and no books or writing were allowed except for a Bible and a notebook to write down any thoughts of a spiritual nature. The first ten to fifteen minutes were great, but then ... after that it was a struggle to say the least!

Those of us who live alone don't necessarily have any problems finding silence but what about the intentional time with God in that silence. And those who have busy families around them would probably love to have some time for silence and time to themselves. Silent time with God allows for different conversations, deeper and more meaningful conversations than can happen with lots of background noise and distraction. Silent meditation and prayer may not seem all that important or much of a priority, but it truly is when you get into the habit.

On one of the youth trips I've taken in the past, we forced the youth (and ourselves) to spend fifteen minutes every day alone (apart from others), without their phones and only a Bible and notebook. We did all sorts of other amazing things on that trip, but every single youth said their favorite thing was the solitary Bible time. This spiritual practice renews us in ways that other activities (upon which we spend so much time in our lives) can't.

So as we explore more spiritual practices, I invite you (even challenge you) to build in intentional silent time with God (without doing anything else) every day to see what an impact it makes in your life.

Shalom y'all!
Pastor Mike

STEWARDSHIP -- CTK Newsletter April 2019

The United States southern border has become a flash point of conflicting public views. Those heading north encompass the full range of human behavior. Some are looking to exploit; others are in search of any job that will provide the means to help lift their families from poverty. Escaping poverty is among the leading reasons for persons emigrating from desperate situations in Central America. As Christians, how can we provide compassionate assistance?

One avenue is through Education Scholarships. Helping an economically poor person attend school equips them with better skills to compete for better job opportunities that will improve their future. If I can survive and thrive at home, emigration to a distant land is far less attractive. For example, in Honduras the very poor can barely afford Middle School for their children and the cost of high school or university is simply beyond reach. High School is “free” if you can afford the security fee, janitorial fee, books, supplies, uniforms, and cost of transportation. It is not the United States where a school bus stops at your house or the corner block. If you do not have enough money, you do not have access to a high school diploma.

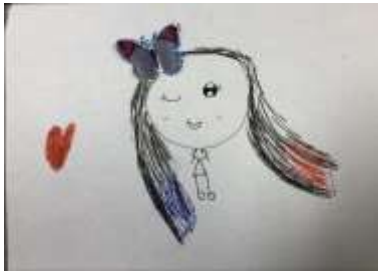

There are many outstanding non-profit organizations that provide international assistance. They are great stewardship avenues for compassionate Christian assistance. One of those organizations is “Austin Helps Honduras (AHH)” which has significant education sponsor support from Saint Martin’s Lutheran Church, Austin, our own Christ the King Lutheran Church, and other religious communities. If life changing differences are part of your stewardship goals, then international education scholarships are a wonderful choice. I can personally vouch for AHH having made six trips to Honduras since 2009. When you witness the Divine transformation from shy seventh grader to confident high school or university student, you know why you made the decision to invest in their education. For multiple reasons, not every scholarship student will be a graduate. But every scholarship student will walk a little taller, feel a little stronger, and reach up a little higher when they know there is a sponsor in the United States of America who believes in them and their self worth and believes they can achieve a better future through education.

The Sunday School children focused on the topic of Prayer. The children came up with the ABC's of things to pray for/about... Creative juices were flowing as children created examples using paint, clay, writing, drawing, and Legos. Join the kids with this handy, alphabetical list.

EASTER LILIES AND MUMS

We will again have Easter lilies and mums filling the chancel area on Easter Sunday. They are $9 each, and we have ordered twelve of each. Please sign up soon. The sign-up sheet may be found on the Worship bulletin board.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are in need of one more volunteer to make coffee in the mornings (time 7:15 am) for a month. This will allow each of us to make coffee quarterly. The volunteers who are making the coffee on Sunday mornings are Lisa and Ray Lopez, Peal and Ed Sauseda, and Kathy Hanley. Please contact us if you are interested in serving this ministry.

Rose Gar-

Thank you everyone at Christ the King Lutheran Church. Rose Garden Elementary was very pleased with the number of footballs (13) and basketballs (15) donated to their school. Mrs. Wold was very pleased and thankful for CTK's thoughtful donations.

Also, Rose Garden would like to thank the congregation for providing Gold Fish and Cheeze Its for snacks. The snacks are greatly appreciated.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES AND PANCAKES

Our Cowboy Roundup community event was wildly successful! Thanks to everyone who helped out from volunteering the day of, to preparation beforehand and cleanup afterward, as well as financial and other non-cash donations! We heard MULTIPLE people ask when we are doing something again!! Our next event will be Pancakes and School Supplies on July 27th from 8-10. More details will come in the months ahead, but we wanted to remind you to please be on the lookout for school supplies (of any kind) to donate. We will have a bin in the narthex—so keep an eye out for it and bring in any donations you have. We may not have one specific "God's Work. Our Hands" event like in the past, but these community events and other outreach and service projects definitely are ways of showing God's love through your actions and donations. Thank you!

Mission Endowment Committee Report

As you will recall, in September, 2018 the congregation established the Christ the King Mission Endowment Fund. The fund was established from a bequest in the amount of $26,486 from the estate of Myrtle Boenig, a long time faithful member of the congregation. Her wish was that these funds be invested and the distributions used to support ministries outside the operating and budgeted activities of the congregation.

Mrs. Boenig's gift, as well as other gifts, are invested in the Endowment Fund A of the ELCA. The current distribution rate is 4% per year, paid quarterly.

Since the fund was established, we have been, and continue to be, blessed with additional gifts from members of the congregation. Also, the congregation had a certificate of deposit which matured earlier this year. The balance in the account was $30,469, and as authorized by the council, was also invested in the fund.

As of March 10, 2019, the balance in the endowment fund account was $72,105, which includes:

Gift from the Myrtle Boenig Estate	$ 26,486
Proceeds from the maturity of the CD	30,469
Additional member gift	8,200
Additional member gift	5,000
Envelope giving to date	1,950
Account Balance--March 10, 2019	$ 72,105

We are blessed and thankful for the response from our congregation. The balance in the fund was achieved in a relatively short period of time, and we encourage your continued support in the months and years to come.

On behalf of your mission endowment committee,
 Bill Maddox

Adult Faith Formation Opportunities

Adult faith formation is just as important as when we were children. Therefore, we have a number of opportunities here at Christ the King for you to get involved. These are open to everyone. So come join the discussion and bring a friend!

ADULT BIBLE STUDY – meets in the Choir Room

Sunday at 9:15am – True Spirituality—Becoming a Romans 12 Christian is a bible study from Chip Ingram. It is a launching pad for your spiritual journey. This inspiring bible study provides clear, specific, and practical guidelines for becoming a Christian who lives like Christ.

Wednesday at 10:30am – In conjunction with our Lenten theme of spiritual practices, we will dive deeper into some of our Christian spiritual practices using the Animate: Practices curriculum. These sessions are like a guided tour through the basics of prayer, food, worship, sacraments, money, service and community. These lessons are led by contemporary leaders in Christian thought. Everyone is welcome to join us and enjoy our interesting discussions. Following the Bible study, all are welcome to join us for lunch (Dutch treat) at La Fiesta Patio Mexican Café on Pat Booker. There will not be Bible study on April 24th.

Wednesday Night at 4:30 pm

Because of Lent, we are meeting EARLY at 4:30 pm. We are also using the Animate: Practices curriculum like the morning class. Join us for Bible study, then a fellowship meal at 5:30 and mid-week Lenten worship at 6:30. EVERYONE is WELCOME! There will not be Bible study on April 24th.

Soulful Conversations

We continue our conversation about being mortal and what it means. Psalm 90:10 says: The days of our life are seventy years. Or perhaps eighty, if we are strong; even then their span is only toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away. The passage in The Message reads: We live for seventy years or so (with luck we might make it to eighty), And what do we have to show for it? Trouble. Toil and trouble and a marker in the graveyard.

Sooner or later independence will become impossible and our life will fundamentally change in ways we do not want. However, we can do nothing about it. If independence is what we live for, what do we do when it can no longer be sustained?

We gather in the Library and anyone can pop in any time. We keep the door closed during our conversations to better hear one another.

Where Mom’s Connect

Are you a MOM? Please join us on Sunday mornings at 9:15 am for an hour of discussion about topics that are relevant to those of us raising children or who have raised children - is there really ever an end? This year’s theme ... A Year of Adventure. Topics will include: guilt free time, self-worth, autism, spiritual growth, the art of listening, and teen adventures. The coffee is hot and the friendships are warm. See you at 9:15 am every Sunday. MOMS meet in the Learning Building.

WOMEN OF THE ELCA

With the beginning of spring comes the season of renewal and new life in nature around us. At Christ the King, the Women of the ELCA have some wonderful events planned. On April 7th we will have an Easter cards & crafts sale as well as Quilt Sunday. Beautiful quilts will be on display as we get them ready to send out to those in need as part of our Lutheran World Relief Ministry. Our LWR coordinators, Erika Robeson and Marion Weishaar, will be attending the Lutheran World Relief Ingathering at Texas Lutheran University in Seguin on April 25th. Our next WELCA meeting will be on April 24th at 6:45 PM in the parish hall. Along with our usual business, there will be an Austin Helps Honduras presentation by Glen and Alfreida Anderson. All women of CTK are cordially invited to join us! We will also be electing our lay voting member to the WELCA Convention.

In Christian love,

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE!

We all have been on a journey to discover who we are and what we can do for our community in Christian love. A discovery of our mission in other words. That has led us to the recent Sunday afternoon where we all spent time looking at our congregational priorities and sharing ideas of what we can do to put them in action. From there your council has met and the following six items are where we'd like to start:

- School supply drive:
All are needed!
- Game Night:
Hosted time are CTK of fun and fellowship
- Communication:
Both internal and to our neighborhood(s), marketing the message of Our Lord
- Community Services:
Your ideas to serve!
- Homework afterschool club:
Hosted time at CTK to help local youngsters while they await Mom & Dad
- Senior Saturdays:
A time to welcome those near us who may just need some time to relax and fellowship

All ideas on how we as CTK do any/all of these are welcome! Your thoughts and involvement will make these ideas become real and truly show Christ's love to our neighbors.

Pray, consider, offer your help!

Contact any Council member to join in bringing our mission to our world.

Yours in Christ,

Rich Patterson
