CROSS ON THE LAWN

As you may have seen last month, we are inviting people to once again place a cross in your lawn, on your door, in a window or simply somewhere inside your house. Then embellish it for the different days of Holy Week.

On Palm Sunday, add palm branches, leafy plants and/or greenery around your cross to remember Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem.

On Maundy Thursday, remove the palms and place a water pitcher and basin and some towels near the cross while you hang a big heart on it.

On Good Friday, remove the previous items. Then add a crown of thorns and possibly drape a black cloth over the arms. At the end of the day remove all items and leave the cross bare.

On (or before) Easter morning, add lilies or other flowers and butterflies. You can also drape a white cloth over the arms.

Be sure to take pictures of each day and post them on the church Facebook page.

PALM SUNDAY

CELEBRATE IN WORSHIP & AT HOME

We can't do a palm parade in worship like we have in year's past but we still have some ideas to help us celebrate. So, bring the normal list of items for Drive-In worship, but also grab some green branches (of any type - palm, oak, cedar, pine, etc.), ribbons or green fabric (be creative - think of green clothes you have, a shirt or scarf) to wave for our celebration of Jesus' Triumphant Entry!

To help celebrate in your home, we also invite you to make a palm or greenery arrangement to hang on the door or in a window.

PALM SUNDAY RAINBOW

As Jesus entered Jerusalem, people were filled with hope that something great was coming. So, as we continue to deal with pandemic restrictions, anxiety and frustrations, we invite you to join with others from around the globe who began posting "quarantine rainbows" last March. Genesis 9:16 says, "Whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth." These rainbows can bring joy to our hearts as we drive through town and the countryside and see them in windows all around. They will serve as a sign of hope, reminding us we are in the world together and God is with us too! And they will remind us that something great is coming still.

PRAYER LABYRINTH

We have used a labyrinth for our prayer practice this year and in years past. In the back of this mailing, we have included a finger Palm Prayer Labyrinth for your use on Palm Sunday and throughout Holy Week.

When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the people waved palm branches and shouted "Hosanna," which means "save us." It was both a shout for joy and a cry for God's help. Use the prayer labyrinth to give thanks for all that God has done. Ask God for help in your life and in the lives of others.

You can trace the white (negative) space between the lines or trace along the lines. Remember to stop periodically and reflect on your journey.

MAUNDY

THURSDAY

FOR WORSHIP:

Bring (or have by your side)
Communion elements
a small container of oil

Both the noon and evening worship services will have communion, stripping of the altar and a special anointing instead of foot / hand washing.

MOVIE WATCH PARTY

What Christians celebrate as Maundy Thursday was when Jesus, the disciples, and the Jewish people were celebrating Passover. So we are going to have a movie watch party on Zoom to watch "Prince of Egypt".

Since this is a family friendly movie, we will watch from 4-6pm. Check Facebook for the link but if you think you want to join, let the church office know and we will email the Zoom link.

RANDOM ACT OF KINDNESS

If you have a sidewalk in front of your home, consider drawing a chalk heart on it on Thursday to proclaim hope and the new commandment Jesus gives us to love one another.

It may brighten the day of people walking past who see it.

GOOD FRIDAY

PRAYER VIGIL

From noon to 3pm on Good Friday (April 2nd), we will have an online prayer vigil to observe the three hours Jesus hung on the cross. Sign up for one (or more if you wish) of the 15 minute slots to spend time in prayer. Use this link to sign up for a specific time so we can be sure to have at least one person praying at all times during the three hours. The link is also available on the church website and Facebook page and will be sent out on Flocknotes.

MOVIE WATCH PARTY

Join us for a movie watch party from 8-10pm on Friday night, April 2nd. We will gather on Zoom to view "The Passion of the Christ". Due to the graphic nature of this movie, we suggest that children do not watch this movie.

Check Facebook for the link but if you think you want to join, let the church office know and we will email the Zoom link.

EASTER LILIES, MUMS, AND KOLANCHOES

We will have Easter Lilies, Mums, and Kolanchoes on Easter Sunday decorating the worship area in the parking lot. If you would like to purchase one or more of these flowers, please call the church office Monday thru Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Each flower will cost $13.00. You may include it with your regular offering marked Easter flowers. We have a total of 20 flowers ordered. At this time, I don't know how many of each flower. You may pick up your flowers following our Easter Sunday Service.

MISSING KEYS

Do you happen to have a set of keys at your house with a red clip keychain like this? If so, they may belong to the church. We are missing a set of keys to the buildings that have a red clip keychain like this one and we're hoping that someone accidentally took them home. If so, please contact the church office. Thanks!

THANK YOU

Thanks to all of you for your prayers, cards, and kind thoughts. I am at home now, but still have weeks of therapy to go. It'll be a long haul, but with God's help I'll make it.

God bless you all!

The Way Forward to Legacy Generosity

April webinars to highlight planning for family, ministry

Lutheran Foundation of the Southwest will offer “The Way Forward to Legacy Generosity,” a webinar on legacy planning for family and ministry. The webinar will be offered at 2 p.m. on two Sundays – April 11 and April 18 – and at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, April 13 and at noon on Thursday, April 15. Please sign up for the one that works best for you at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0C49A8A629ABFFC25-theway>

This webinar is open to all congregational members to learn more about the foundation’s comprehensive legacy planning services for family and ministry. The foundation is a partner ministry of the three ELCA synods in Texas and offers its services at no cost and no obligation.

A congregation member may say, “I like the idea of leaving a gift to my church when I pass away, but I’d like to know more about how to create a plan for family and ministry.” The church has a dedicated ministry for just this kind of support through Lutheran Foundation of the Southwest. A gift planner is available in each synod that can guide you to clarify your goals and objectives in planning. Any congregation member can establish a robust personal legacy plan with the guidance of the synod gift planner. Those with existing plans should consider reviewing their plans to make sure they continue to meet their goals for family and ministry.

All members of ELCA congregations are invited to participate in these webinars. Those who may have additional questions or need assistance with registration are invited to contact Deacon John Dellis, senior gift planner for congregations in the Southwestern Texas Synod, at (830) 305-2758 or jdellis@lfsw.org.

VACCINATION SHOTS

Your donations are greatly appreciated! We are working with the fire alarm company to schedule installation.

CURRENT RACAP PANTRY NEEDS

Items Needed: Toilet Paper, Feminine Hygiene Products (pads, tampon, etc.), All toiletry items (shampoo, bar soap, deodorant, toothpaste, etc.), Diapers sizes 4-6, and Pull-Ups sizes 3T-5T

It has been an awesome opportunity for me to be able for the last 9 months to explore together different prayer practices. This project not only was done as part of a Seminary project but is an area that I really think is well needed to cultivate in our lives and the life of the church. For Luther we pray not as a justifying work but because God wants to hear from us. We can embrace and practice ways of being, working, and praying in the world because we acknowledge that our salvation—and everything else—is not dependent upon our prayers but dependent upon the One who hears them.

Prayer as we experienced throughout our prayer practices journey ultimately intended to provide for us a glimpse on how our daily life itself can become a liturgy, a form of prayer, a way of being a child of God, or, in Lutheran terms, living out one's baptismal identity as a vocation. By the way, Luther did not shy away from the value of prayer; prayer and its importance permeate his work. Even the novice reader of Luther will note that he stresses the importance of daily and family devotions. For him prayer is our primary vocation as a Christian. After the Reformation, a lot of things shook loose and much of it did not land in tidy piles, and sadly, much of the rich beauty of the greater Christian tradition was misplaced, including living our daily lives as a prayer, as a vocation.

Even with all our challenges because of Covid and not been able to meet in person the prayer practices nourish and helped us to be aware of our Triune God's presence. Much like participating in liturgy, in prayer we attach ourselves to all prayers in distance and through time, and God takes our feeble and humble words along with our broken and mortal beings and attaches God's promises to them. There is an incarnational reality to prayer as it emerges from the hopes and grief of real people. As we take time out to pray, we join with people of faith everywhere for the sake of the world. Like liturgy, we only understand this gift (prayer) through faith, but is it not possible that a God who is willing to take our death into God's being so we might have life also longs to hear from us just as a loving parent longs to hear their child's voice?

We were able to experience a variety of prayer practices; some very ancient, however, there was so many others we could not explore because of time reasons. Most of the practices we experienced were contemplative. Contemplative prayer consists in "being intentionally present" to the Sacred. It is to take, for example, an evangelical passage and recreate it in the mind by getting into it as the protagonist (taking on the role of one of the characters who appear as, for example, assuming the figure of John at the foot of the cross of Christ in John 19, 25-27) or recipient (to think that all this happens for me or for me: Christ is born for me, dies for my sins, etc.). The way to "get in" is through the senses acted on and with imagination: to see the people who enter the scene, to hear what they say or can say, what they comment on each other, to observe looking to focus attention on what the characters do, participate, help, etc. The center of this type of prayer is in the application of the senses and all the human faculties that act from them: imagination, understanding, will -our whole selves.

My time at CTK is almost over (until the end of May)... my prayer is that a prayer group may continue the prayer practices meetings. This is an invitation and a challenge □ for the group participants. I am grateful to all the participants; it was a blessing experiencing the prayer practices with you all -Zoom meetings and videos.

This sweet ministry offers recipients comfort and solace as they receive a shawl in which prayers and blessings have been offered for them. Marion is currently focusing on her health, but we are very thankful for all her work with WELCA. ## STEWARDSHIP OF SELF: FAREWELL

by Don Nellerroe, Stewardship

While the title says "Farewell", it isn't meant to be a final "Goodbye". God will determine that point in time. I want to share a few points with you that I have discovered over the past number of years, now 89, to continue our Godly involvement wherever we choose to be. For example: Psalm 92:1-2 tells us that "It is good to give thanks to the Lord, and to sing praises to Your name, O Most High; To declare Your loving kindness in the morning, and Your faithfulness every night." Easy to do, but how easy it is to divert our attention from what the Psalm encourages us to do when something happens in our life.

With all the traveling Joyce and I have done in our retirement, we have another journey to make, perhaps several. As I shared in an earlier newsletter, we go north to the Minneapolis area to be with our family again. Travel isn't an easy task any longer. We have enjoyed our stay in San Antonio since October 1999. All of you folks at CTK have been a positive influence on our lives. We have always sought new things to learn, new people to meet, and new challenges in various cultures. We have lived the life, traveled the roads, and worshiped God wherever we have landed. After 20 some years it is time to retire again, meet new people and start the process all over again. We have been richly blessed in all that we have received, Thanks Be to God.

Lastly, I want to share with all a piece called "Undying Love", author unknown. It comes from the family who were our next-door neighbors at one point in our life. This is part of the Patriarch's funeral. "Memories are like gentle waves, they wash over us time and again, bringing us the gift of comfort and peace." And the last bit of Undying Love is "God never promised skies always blue, nor flower-strewn paths all our lives through. God never promised sun without rain, joy without sorrow or peace without pain. But God has promised: Strength for the day, Rest for the labor, Light for the way, Grace for the trials, Help from above, Unfailing mercy, and Undying Love . . ." And so it is, friends all! Peace be with y'all till we meet again!

ADULT FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

Adult faith formation is just as important as when we were children. Therefore, we have a number of opportunities here at Christ the King for you to get involved. These are open to everyone! So come join the discussion of your choice and bring a friend!

ALL moms are welcome to attend. If you would like more information, please contact Sheri Boos or Maggie Boos for details. We would love to have you join us!

Soulful Conversations

He has brought down the powerful from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly; he has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty. Luke 1:52-53 (NIV)

Imagine how severely oppressed people especially people of color (POC) might interpret this text. Although the Bible doesn't address the needs of POC, the author writes that the Bible outlines the basic principles, policies, and types of power structures needed to equip them to live and work with hope.

Your voice is always welcomed in our conversation – whether it is one time or many times

Wednesday at 10:15am via Zoom

We are continuing our discussions based on seven contemporary theologians/scholars/pastors teaching on: testaments, gospels, genre, interpretation, & grace. The conversations will be in a continuous fashion – meaning we won't just discuss one topic each week. We will continue the conversation on a topic from week to week until we have finished that topic. Then we will move to the next topic.

Because of the continuous fashion, we will show the video from the previous week's discussion each week at 10:15am for anyone who may have missed it or who wants a quick refresher of the previous topic presentation.

Contact Pastor Mike with any questions or if you need the Zoom meeting link. Everyone is welcome to join us and enjoy the entertaining and informative conversations.

We are "rooted" in God's word!

Kids from preschool through 5th grade — Join us each week as we learn about Lent from 11:00—11:45 for Children’s Church on Zoom. This month we will meet on April 18 and 25.

Begin gathering items and getting things ready now because before you know it, it will be here. The plan will be to have everything outside and spaced out to accommodate everyone and because of the amount of expected stuff.

If you have any questions, let Mariesa know. Also, since the Youth did not get to have an Easter Breakfast for the second year in a row, this will be our big fundraiser along with sponsors
